Community Response Fund

Valley First

Valley First, a division of First West Credit Union

We're here for you and our communities. First West Foundation and its regional community endowments has launched a $500,000 responsive fund to support charitable organizations impacted by COVID-19. Grants are available for charities focused on supporting food security and basic needs, including hunger programs and services for youth, families and seniors.

We're listening and we want to help as many organizations as we can. Apply now for the support you need.
